Objections

First, the Office Action objected to the declaration for containing non-initialed alterations. Applicants respectfully request reconsideration of this objection. First, the Office Action (referring to Paper No. 28) does not allege that the statements pertaining to the veracity of the declared statements or the duties of the inventors of the declaration has been altered. The alterations identified in Paper No. 28 relate to the residence of one inventor and the citizenship of the other. These are factual matters, and they do not affect the veracity of
